

Your school or institution may require you to purchase an activation code to access a Peregrine service such as an exam or learning module. This document will guide you through the registration process and answer some frequently asked questions.

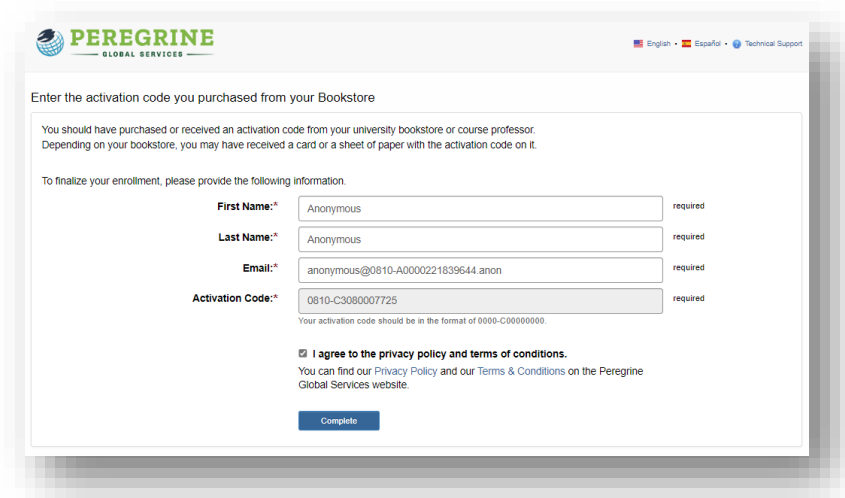

Registering with a Bookstore Activation Code

- Obtain the activation code from your bookstore or instructor.
- If you have an assignment link within your course shell for the exam or learning module, simply click on the assignment link and enter your activation code.
- If you do not have an assignment link within your course shell, you will receive an activation code card that includes a link to an external website landing page where your activation code will be entered.
- Once you enter the activation code, click “Begin” to proceed.

The screenshot shows the Peregrine Global Services website with the header logo and navigation links for English, Español, and Technical Support. The main heading is "Enter the activation code you purchased from your Bookstore". Below this, a message states: "You should have purchased or received an activation code from your university bookstore or course professor. Depending on your bookstore, you may have received a card or a sheet of paper with the activation code on it." There is a text input field labeled "Activation Code:" containing the code "0810-C3080007725". To the right of the field is a "required" label. Below the field, a note says "Your activation code should be in the format of 0000-C000000000". At the bottom of the form is a blue "Begin" button.

- You may be prompted to confirm your name, student ID, program, as well as other possible identifiers that your school may choose.
- Once you have filled out the required fields, please click “Complete”.

The screenshot shows the same Peregrine Global Services website, but now with a form to "finalize your enrollment". The heading is "Enter the activation code you purchased from your Bookstore". The same message about purchasing the activation code is present. Below, it says "To finalize your enrollment, please provide the following information." There are four text input fields, each with a "required" label to its right: "First Name:" (containing "Anonymous"), "Last Name:" (containing "Anonymous"), "Email:" (containing "anonymous@0810-A0000221839644 anon"), and "Activation Code:" (containing "0810-C3080007725"). Below the Activation Code field, the same format note is present. At the bottom, there is a checkbox labeled "I agree to the privacy policy and terms of conditions." with a link to the Privacy Policy and Terms & Conditions. A blue "Complete" button is at the very bottom.

How will I access my exam or learning module?

- If you registered by entering your activation code through an assignment link in your course shell, you will use that link to re-access the exam/module.
- If you registered by entering your activation code on our external website landing page, you will receive an email containing the access link for your exam/module. Should you not start your exam/module directly after the registration process or need to come back to an exam/module that is in progress, please use the access link that was sent to your email. If you did not receive, or cannot locate your access link, please click Get Your Access Link under the Students & Learners tab on our website.

Where can I find additional Information on the exam or learning module?

For additional information on the overall structure and time constraints of the exam or learning module, please click Registration Guides under the Students & Learners tab on our website.

Where can I find Technical Support and Frequently Asked Questions?

For additional Technical Support, Frequently Asked Questions, and other Step-by-Step Registration Guides, please visit our Resources for Students & Learners at <https://peregrineglobal.com/students/>